Hey everyone! Well, name selection for the newsletter has gotten a little off track, to say the least...that would be due to your lovely editor dropping the ball...

SORRY! But, I'm back on it! The ballot is now online, so check it out! Ballots will also be available at the USO show; you may also mail your selection to the theater. All votes must be received by February 28, 2009. Happy voting! Hope to see you all at the shows!

Jocelyn
